5 General meetings

5.1 Annual general meeting

Annual general meetings of the Australian Medical Council are to be held no later than six months after the end of the financial year of the Australian Medical Council.

5.2 Power to convene general meeting

The Directors may convene a general meeting when they think fit. However, they must convene and arrange to hold a general meeting when requisitioned by Members according to the Corporations Act.¹

5.3 Period of notice of general meeting

At least 21 days' written notice of a general meeting must be given to each Member.

¹ A notice of a general meeting must be given individually to each member. A notice of a general meeting must:

- (a) set out the place, date and time for the meeting;
- (b) state the general nature of the meetings' business;
- (c) if a special resolution is to be proposed – set out an intention to propose the special resolution and state the resolution; and
- (d) contain a statement setting out the members' right to appoint a proxy.

5.4 Notice of general meeting

Notice of a meeting of Members must be given according to article 25 and the Corporations Act.

5.5 Notice of special resolution

If a special resolution² is to be proposed, the notice of meeting must set out the intention to propose the special resolution and its terms.

5.6 Members' resolutions

If a Member wishes a resolution to be considered at a general meeting of the Australian Medical Council, they must give written notice of the resolution to the Chief Executive Officer in sufficient time for it to be circulated to all Members not less than 14 days before the general meeting at which the resolution is to be considered.³

5.7 Non-receipt of notice of general meeting

The non-receipt of notice of a general meeting by, or the accidental omission to give notice of a general meeting to, a person entitled to receive notice, does not invalidate any resolution passed at the general meeting.

5.8 Auditor entitled to attend general meetings⁴

The auditor of the Australian Medical Council is entitled to:

- (a) attend any general meeting; and
- (b) receive all notices of and other communications relating to any general meeting that a Member is entitled to receive; and
- (c) be heard at any general meeting on any part of the business of the meeting that concerns the auditor in that capacity; and
- (d) be heard at any general meeting even if the auditor retires at that meeting or a resolution to remove the auditor from office is passed at that meeting.

The auditor may authorise an agent in writing to do those things on their behalf.

² Matters which, under the Corporations Act, require a special resolution include:

- (a) modification or repeal of the company constitution; and
- (b) voluntary winding up of the company.

³ The Corporations Act provides that, if a company is given insufficient time for the proposed resolution to be forwarded with the notice of meeting, then the member requesting the consideration of the resolution is to bear the cost of circulating the resolution. The company in general meeting may resolve to meet those expenses.

⁴ Reflects mandatory requirements in ss 249V(1), 249K, 249V(2), 249V(3) and 249V(4) Corporations Act.

5.9 Directors entitled to attend general meetings

A Director is entitled to:

- (c) be heard at any general meeting on any part of the business of the meeting.

5.10 Cancellation or postponement of general meeting

Where a general meeting (including an annual general meeting) is convened by the Directors, they may, when they think fit, cancel the meeting or postpone the meeting to a date and time that they determine.

However, this article does not apply to a general meeting convened in accordance with the Corporations Act by Members or by the Directors at the request of Members.

5.11 Written notice of cancellation or postponement of general meeting

Written notice of the cancellation or postponement of a general meeting must be given to everyone entitled to receive notices of general meetings from the Australian Medical Council.

The notice must be given at least three days before the date for which the meeting is convened and must specify the reason for the cancellation or postponement.

5.12 Contents of notice postponing general meeting

A notice postponing a general meeting must specify:

- (a) a date and time for the holding of the meeting; and
- (b) a place for the holding of the meeting, which may be either the same as or different to the place specified in the notice convening the meeting.

5.13 Notice period for postponed general meeting

The period from when a notice postponing a general meeting is given to the date specified in that notice for the holding of the meeting may not be less than 21 days or such other period of notice of the meeting required to be given by the Corporations Act.

5.14 Business at postponed general meeting

The only business that may be transacted at a general meeting that is postponed is the business specified in the original notice convening the meeting.

5.15 Non-receipt of notice cancelling or postponing of a general meeting

The accidental omission to give notice of the cancellation or postponement of a general meeting to, or the non-receipt of any such notice by, any person entitled to notice does not invalidate that cancellation or postponement nor any resolution passed at a postponed general meeting.

6 Proceedings at general meetings

6.1 Business of annual general meeting

The business of an annual general meeting includes to receive and consider the profit and loss account, the balance sheet and the reports of the Directors and the auditor, to appoint an auditor if necessary to fill any vacancy in the office of auditor, and to elect Directors.

6.2 Number for a quorum

Thirteen Members present in person are a quorum at a general meeting.

6.3 Requirement for a quorum

An item of business may not be transacted at a general meeting unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to consider it.

If a quorum is present at the beginning of a general meeting it is taken to be present throughout the meeting unless the chair of the meeting on their own motion or at the request of a Member who is present otherwise declares.

6.4 Quorum and time

If within 15 minutes after the time appointed for a general meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting:

- (a) if convened by, or on requisition of, Members is dissolved; and
- (b) in any other case stands adjourned to the same day in the next week and the same time and place, or to the other day, time and place as the Directors appoint by notice to the Members and others entitled to notice of the meeting.

6.5 Adjourned meeting

If a quorum is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for an adjourned general meeting, the meeting is dissolved.

6.6 Appointment and powers of chair of general meeting

The President is entitled to preside as chair at a general meeting, except in relation to a resolution concerning the election or removal of the President. In that case the chair is to be determined in accordance with article 6.7.

6.7 Absence of chair at general meeting

If a general meeting is held and the President is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting or is unable or unwilling to act, the following may preside as chair of the meeting (in order of precedence):

- (a) the Deputy President;
- (b) a Director chosen by a majority of the Directors present;
- (c) a Member chosen by a majority of the Members present in person.

6.8 Notice of adjourned meeting

It is not necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at any adjourned general meeting unless a meeting is adjourned for more than 21 days.

In that case, notice of the adjourned general meeting must be given as in the case of an original general meeting.

6.9 Questions decided by majority

Subject to the requirements of the Corporations Act, a resolution is taken to be carried if a simple majority of the votes cast on the resolution are in favour of it.⁵

6.10 Equality of votes – casting vote for chair

If there is an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chair of the general meeting has a casting vote in addition to any other vote to which the chair is entitled.

6.11 Declaration of results

At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is properly demanded and the demand is not withdrawn.

A declaration by the chair that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Australian Medical Council, is conclusive evidence of the fact.

Neither the chair nor the minutes need state, and it is not necessary to prove, the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

6.12 Poll

If a poll is properly demanded, it must be taken in the manner and at the date and time directed by the chair and the result of the poll is the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

⁵ There are some matters which can only be passed by a special resolution which requires special notice and a 75% majority. These matters include amendments to the constitution and a change of the company name.

A poll demanded on the election of a chair or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately.

A demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

A demand for a poll does not prevent the continuance of the general meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll has been demanded.

6.13 Objection to voting qualification

Objection may not be raised to the right of a person to attend or vote at a general meeting or adjourned general meeting or to vote on a poll except at that general meeting or adjourned general meeting or when that poll is taken.

Every vote not disallowed at the general meeting or adjourned general meeting or when the poll is taken is valid.

6.14 Chair to determine any poll dispute

If there is a dispute as to the admission or rejection of a vote, the chair of the general meeting must decide it and the chair's decision made in good faith is final and conclusive.

6.15 Adjournment of general meeting

With the consent of the Members present, the chair of a general meeting may at any time during the meeting adjourn the meeting or any business, motion, question, resolution, debate or discussion being considered or remaining to be considered by the meeting.

The adjournment may be either to a later time at the same meeting or to an adjourned meeting at any time and any place.

Only unfinished business is to be transacted at a general meeting resumed after an adjournment.

6.16 Notice of adjournment

If a general meeting is adjourned for more than 30 days, notice of the adjournment must be given according to article 5.4.

7 Votes of Members

7.1 Voting rights

Subject to the rights and any restrictions attached to or affecting any class of Members and to any other restrictions in this Constitution:

- (a) on a show of hands, each Member present in person has one vote; and
- (b) on a poll, each Member present in person has one vote.

If the President ceases to be a Director, then the Deputy President assumes the position of President until the next annual general meeting.

8.6 Directors to retire

At each annual general meeting of the Australian Medical Council, the Directors appointed under articles 8.3, 8.4 and 8.5 whose terms have come to an end must retire from office.

A retiring Director holds office until the conclusion of the meeting at which that Director retires but (subject to articles 8.3 and 8.4 and their Membership at the time of the election) is eligible for re-election.

8.7 Casual vacancy

If there is a vacancy in the office of a Director elected by the Members, the Directors may appoint a Member to fill the vacancy.

If a person is elected as a Director under article 8.2(c) and that person is subsequently appointed as chair of the Medical School Accreditation Committee, the Prevocational Standards Accreditation Committee, the Specialist Education Accreditation Committee, the Assessment Committee or the Aboriginal, Torres Strait Islander and Māori Committee, then that person becomes a Director under article 8.2(d) and there is deemed to be a vacancy in the office of Director under article 8.2(c) and this article 8.7 applies.

A Member appointed under this article holds office until the conclusion of the next annual general meeting of the Australian Medical Council but (subject to continuing membership) is eligible for election at that meeting.

8.8 Vacation of office of a Director

In addition to the circumstances in which the office of a Director becomes vacant under the Corporations Act,⁶ the office of a Director becomes vacant if the Director:

⁶ The principal grounds for disqualification from managing a corporation are:

- (a) on conviction for certain offences;
- (b) becoming bankrupt or entering into a deed of arrangement or composition with creditors;

If a Director so removed from office was an elected Director, then a new Director may be elected by the Australian Medical Council but that Director holds office only until the conclusion of the next annual general meeting.

If a Director so removed from office was a Director under clause 8.2(d) then the Directors shall appoint a new person to fill that position.

9 Powers and duties of Directors
