Australian Medical Council Limited

The AMC examinations and assessment process is for non-specialist International Medical Graduates (IMGs) (not Australian or New Zealand graduates) who are undertaking the standard pathway to registration with the Medical Board of Australia.

Please note: The AMC certificate will be issued with the first and last names as stated on the IMG's AMC account.

No name changes to the AMC certificate will be accepted once the certificate has been issued.

IMGs are required to submit their medical degree (final medical diploma/primary medical qualification) in clinical medicine and surgery for verification. It is important to determine whether your medical school as well as your degree title and graduation year are eligible.

⬇

Follow the step-by-step instructions provided in the Primary Source Verification (PSV) process flowchart, including applying for a MyIntealth account and establishing a portfolio.

Create an AMC account and establish a portfolio (only if applicable). Refer to FAQs - AMC account/portfolio/primary source verification for further information.
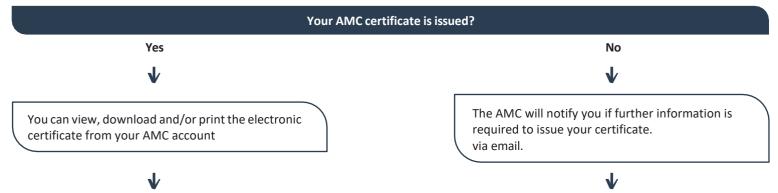

⬇

Pass the AMC CAT Multiple Choice Questions (MCQ) examination

⬇   ⬇

| Pass the AMC clinical examination | OR | Pass the workplace-based assessment (WBA) program |

⬇   ⬇

After your results have been published on your AMC account, the AMC will proceed with issuing the electronic AMC certificate.

Please allow up to 5 business days for the certificate to be generated.

⬇

Your AMC certificate is issued?

Yes   No

⬇   ⬇

| You can view, download and/or print the electronic certificate from your AMC account | The AMC will notify you if further information is required to issue your certificate. via email. |

⬇   ⬇

Please note: The Medical Board of Australia/Ahpra and the nominated Australian/Australasian specialist medical college(s)(if applicable) will have access to view your verification and qualification information, AMC certificate and specialist assessment outcome (uploaded by your nominated specialist medical college, if applicable) via the AMC portal.

Contact the Medical Board of Australia for registration requirements.
Proceed with your eligible assessment pathway to registration. Use their Registration self-assessment tool to determine your eligible pathway.